

JOIN THE SUSTAINABLE SCOOPS AND CELEBRATE THE ART AND JOY OF GELATO MAKING!

Are you a gelato lover and a gelato maker? Do you want to showcase your skills and creativity, while supporting local and sustainable ingredients? Then join the Sustainable Scoops: GELATOn THE ROAD's Local Flavor Competition!

This competition is a unique opportunity to spotlight and elevate the artistry and professionalism of gelato makers, aligning with the values of GELATOn THE ROAD, a project that promotes the culture and history of gelato around the world.

Learn more!

The competition is simple:

Craft a delicious gelato from local ingredients, submit your detailed recipe, and present your creation during the competition, emphasizing themes like locality and sustainability. You can use pre-prepared gelato or make it on-site, following hygiene regulations and wearing gelato maker uniforms.

The competition has two phases: qualification and final. It is open to gelato professionals in each participating region, who must pre-register through the project website. Each region may set a limit on the number of entries, potentially requiring a pre-qualification round. Participation is encouraged and free, subject to adherence to strict sustainability guidelines.
